Good Morning, Ms. Travis,

I wanted to send a note sincerely thanking you for the holiday packages and stockings that your organization sent our Soldiers here in 2nd Cavalry Regiment in Tower Barracks, Germany. For many of the Soldiers who will be spending the holidays overseas away from their families, these stockings were really meaningful, and the Soldiers really appreciated all of the thoughtful snacks and goodies. Thank you so much for thinking of us. We appreciate you and all that you do, and all the best holiday wishes to you and your family.

Judy –

I wanted to personally thank you for the generous care packages you sent our way. We are currently deployed to the Middle East with the 34th Infantry Division, and as one of the leaders in this unit, I can tell you that your kindness has provided a massive boost to morale. Being away from family during the holidays is tough for many of our soldiers, and opening these gifts truly brightens their spirits.

A little about me: I'm a fellow Minnesotan from Monticello, now living in Buffalo. My wife and I have two daughters, a three-year-old and an eight-month-old. It's difficult watching them grow and carry on with daily life from afar, especially since my "wild-child" toddler seems to have endless energy!

Thank you for thinking of us. It means for than you know.

Good morning Judy,

I'm with 760th EOD out in the Middle East right now and just got your package. Thank you so much for taking the time to make and send them.

Judy,

My son, 1LT Garrett S., just received one of your stockings. He is currently on a rotation in Germany and this is the first Christmas we will spend without him. To say the least, he was very excited to receive your gift. I cannot thank you enough for your organization and the joy you bring to soldiers away from home at this time of year. It truly means the world to them and to the families missing them back home.

Thank you, thank you!!!

Thank you so much!

Judy,

THANK YOU! As an extremely honored recipient of one of the hand-made stockings stuffed with love, I am extremely grateful for the thought, care, TREATS, and kind words.

Many of the sailors onboard USS ARLEIGH BURKE, that were also recipients, feel the same way.

Reading the "HOLIDAY BLESSINGS TO YOU..." card I notice it says Girl Scouts of Chesapeake Bay Council. If I can return the holiday spirit to you or your girl scouts, in the form of a care package of goodies from Spain, please let me know. It would be my pleasure.

Happy Holidays, Kenneth B.

I've attached a picture of the card I hope it helps you find them.

Good morning,
I wanted to say thank you from me and my soldiers for the stockings. We received them a couple days ago and as you can see from the attached pictures, they were pretty excited about them! A few of us have been deployed before so it's nothing new to miss holidays with family, but other soldiers I have, this is their first time deploying and being so far from home over the holiday season. These packages meant a lot.

We received your care packages! They made its way all the way to Kosovo. Thank you so much, it truly lifted our spirits! We are thankful that you took the time to bake us cookies and fill boxes with some of our favorite treats from home!
We will continue to share the gifts with fellow soldiers! Again, thank you for your kindness and thoughtfulness!
We will share pictures with you soon!

Hey Judy!
All of the boxes made it safely, and they were so excited! The soldiers have them hanging outside of their rooms.
My Facebook memories reminded me that I also received a stocking from your organization when I was deployed in 2014. It's so cool how everything comes full circle, and it's amazing to see that your organization is still making an impact. Again, I cannot thank you enough for what you do, and for helping Apache Troops holidays be a little brighter! 💖 M. Carrell

Hi Judy (aka Chief Elf in Charge)!

My name is Camryn, my buddy Chloe and I are combat engineers from Oregon currently deployed to Africa.

A Christmas stocking was just delivered to Chloe and my place of work tonight!

I just wanted to say thank you for the time and effort taken to bring Christmas spirit here to us. Being away from home during the holidays is tough, and all of our new friends in Delaware brought home and the holidays to us.

Notes and gifts like this make every hard moment of this deployment so so worth it.

We hope you have a wonderful holiday season. Thank you so so much and God bless,

Camryn and Chloe

Good afternoon,

I wanted to take a moment to say thank you for the small gifts that meant something big.

The Christmas stockings and the handwritten letters from the children may seem simple, but they carry something powerful — kindness, gratitude, and genuine support from people who believe in us.

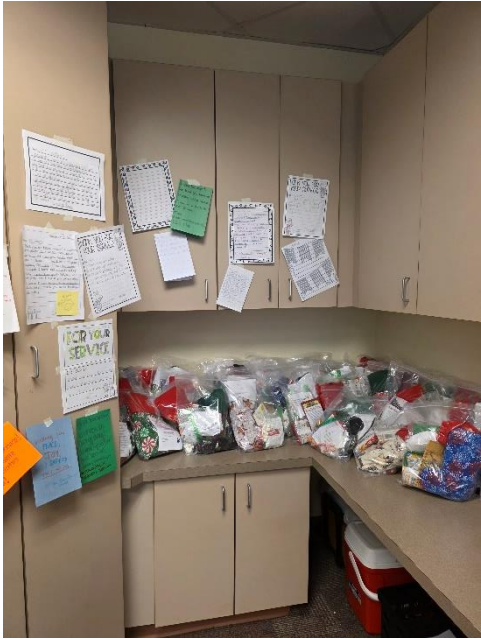

My Soldiers reading those letters remind us why we serve and who we serve: families, communities, and the next generation.

Those kids took the time to write words of encouragement to soldiers they may never meet, and that means more than they'll ever know. In the middle of long days and demanding missions, those small gestures lift morale, restore perspective, and bring a bit of Christmas spirit into uniform.

Please know that every stocking was appreciated, and every kind word landed where it mattered most.

From all of us in our Company, a Big Thank you!

This is SSG E. Muller,

I wanted you to have some pictures of where my stocking ended up. I am currently deployed in Somalia, so receiving these stockings for myself and the 3 other soldiers that are with me made our week! So thank you.

The tree you see my wife made and sent me, the little tins at the bottom of the tree are from you guys and there is my stocking.

Thank you again and Merry Christmas. Keep us and our families in your prayers! Please know all the hard work and love you guys put into each and everyone of these stockings was and is appreciated. Thank you again and God Bless you and our amazing country.

West Point Parent Club of Delaware,

Thank you so much for such lovely care packages. My guys and I really enjoy them! We really appreciate the time everyone took to put everything together and to ensure that all of us have a little taste of the holiday spirit.

Happy Holidays

Ma'am,

Last week I was the recipient of a care package prepared by your organization. I really wanted to reach out and say thank you.

I've been in the army for over 18 years, and this isn't my first holiday season away from home. It is never easy.

I just wanted to thank you and your group for your kind gesture which genuinely made my day.

Judy,

The Soldiers absolutely loved the stockings. They couldn't believe their names were written on them...it meant so much to them. Thank you to your entire team for bringing so much joy.

CH Taylor

Hi Judy and Bob & Laura!
Your names were listed in a care package...the Chief Elf-in-Charge and Guiding Eyes for service dogs! Anyhow, I just wanted to shoot you a quick note to say thank you for the Christmas stocking. I'm Col Eric T. (USMC) and oversee the Intelligence Directorate for Operation INHERENT RESOLVE, which oversees military actions in Iraq and Syria. We're headquartered out of Erbil, Iraq. Having been to through this rodeo a few times over the past decades, places like Erbil actually aren't that bad compared to where Iraq used to be. Regardless, our troops are still away from home, and for many it's the first time in their lives...not to mention the recent loss of our brethren in Syria are a reminder that it still sucks at times here. But that's why I want to say thank you for the stockings to everyone here; it means a lot and gives a touch of home no matter where we are.

Below are some pics of our mighty intel crew on Thanksgiving. It's a Joint Coalition that includes the British and reps from all the armed services as well as intel civilians too (truly a united hodge podge). We wish you the best and again thanks!!

Col Eric T., USMC
CJ2 Director, CJTF-OIR (Erbil)

I wanted to personally thank you and your team for the tremendous work and generosity that you've shown to us during this holiday season. The packages meant a lot and we all appreciated the kindness. It certainly helps brighten the day and shows the spirit this time of year brings.

Thank you again.

Ms. Travis,

I can't express the joy and excitement my soldiers had when they saw not only stockings but individual stockings WITH THEIR NAMES ON THEM. (: You have an amazing community of supporters and volunteers.

These pictures are my soldiers located in Iraq. I will be sending stockings to Kuwait and Syria as well. If I can get some pictures, I'll send those to you.

Again, amazing effort and if your intent was to bring happiness to deployed soldiers, you succeeded in your mission.

Thanks isn't enough.

Dear Ms. Travis,

Thank you so much for the sleigh-load of stockings and loot you sent out to my Sailors on USS FORT WORTH! They were so encouraged by your thoughtful gifts and especially loved reading the notes from the Girl Scouts and schools.

FORT WORTH is a FREEDOM-Class Littoral Combat Ship—the only one of its class on the West Coast! Our ship has been in an extended maintenance period, which can be discouraging for Sailors as they’re engaged in upkeep and repairs, and not necessarily using their skills while at sea on deployment. As a crew, we’ve supported every Littoral Combat Ship deployment in 2025 by providing some of our trained Sailors to fill skills and leadership shortfalls on other ships and have used this method to keep our Sailors going to sea! Thank you so much for thinking of them this year — it means a lot.

If you all ever find yourselves in San Diego, CA, I hope you’ll give me a call so I can show you the ship. Thank you very much and Merry Christmas!

Dear Judy,

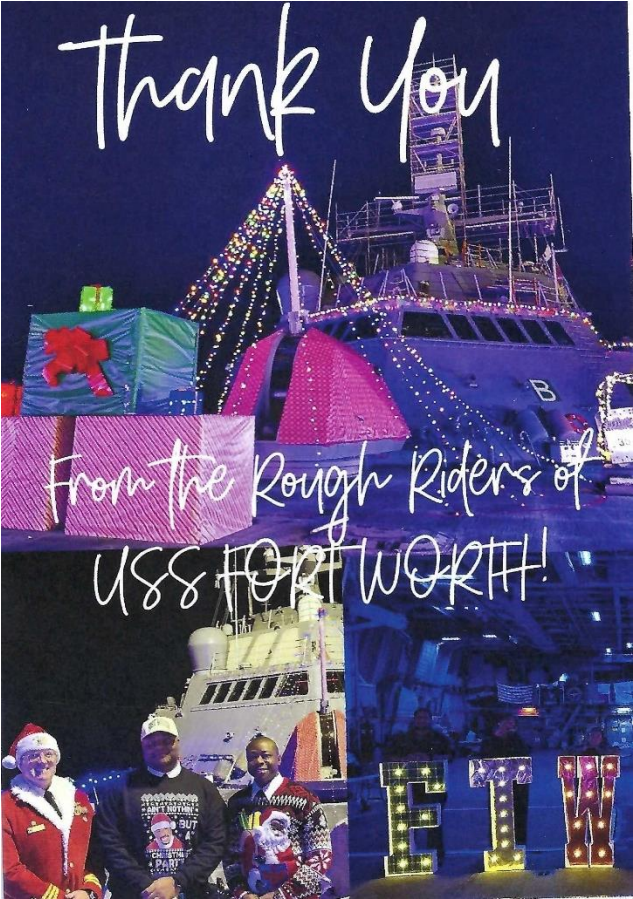

Happy New Year from San Diego, California! Thank you so much for putting together the Stockings for Soldiers for USS FORT WORTH (and for allowing a bunch of “squids” to be included in the program)! Over the holiday period, our galley was closed and our Sailors stood duty two-days-on/two-days-off, so the snacks and toiletries were much appreciated by all hands. My crew LOVED the letters from the Girl Scouts—they brought a great deal of joy and laughter to folks who, while stationed stateside, are still away from their family homes for the holidays.

While the ship remained pier-side through 2025, members of the crew supported every deployment by Littoral Combat Ship Squadron ONE ships, often returning with awards, senior qualifications, and requests by the supported ship to keep the Rough Riders onboard. The crew also participated in training events for every Basic Division Officer Course held in San Diego this year, influencing the future careers of every new junior Officer bound for Pacific-based ships! Our Sailors painted the entire ship, took-on several maintenance tasks normally covered by repair depots, and continued to earn advanced qualifications by training onboard and in the simulators in Mayport, Florida. USS FORT WORTH Sailors stand ready to answer the nation’s call in any circumstance and in any ocean.

Thank you for your support to our country’s Soldiers, Sailors, Marines, Airmen, Coast Guardsman, and Guardians. We are truly blessed to be stewards of your ship, and I am excited to see what the crew accomplishes in 2026.

GRIT AND TENACITY!,

Judy Travis and team of Stocking For Soldiers Staff and Volunteers,

I am from the SAG-U / NSATU Chapel team and I want to extend the appreciation from our deployed members as I had an absolutely amazing time handing out all the stockings to our folks.

Although I wasn't the person that care packages were sent to, I was glad the leadership team here decided to have the Chapel team hand them out. Your team impacted over 500 members and it was a joy to see the smiles on their faces.

Below is another email from 'sendwishonline.' I put it together because I think it's important that all the volunteers know they truly are making an impact on our service members. The virtual Thank You card is a small token where members were able to express their gratitude for all the amazing work that your organization does.

Miss Judy Travis or "Elf in charge",

My name is Dylan H. and I am serving in the Iowa Army National Guard. Currently, I am deployed to a remote austere base in Syria and a convoy from Iraq brought a pleasant surprise along with the mail. The Christmas stocking with my name on it was a big hit and I want you to know how grateful I am for your kindness. My Medics also thoroughly enjoyed theirs! We don't have a great deal out here, but we definitely have everything we need. Your presents are a nice bit of extra and holiday cheer. It is an honor and privilege to serve citizens such as yourself and I know that I am very grateful for the time, consideration, and effort you put into all of these fine gifts. Please convey my heartfelt thanks to your organization and its members. My tour will end in the spring and I shall be eager to return home. From thousands of miles away-you brightened my day! Thank you.

I wanted to take a moment and express my appreciation for all those responsible for sending stockings to the ANG serving in Jordan.
My daughter Cameryn received one along with fellow soldiers and I want everyone to know how much they appreciated it. They took pictures with the stockings.
My gift for my daughter didn't arrive on time. But she received your card with such warm words and a stocking with her name on it and it made it that much more personal. You would think the Middle East had no need for socks. Well at the moment it is very cold there, so perfect.
I just want everyone who donated, decorated the stockings or participated in any means they are appreciated. The soldiers absolutely loved them and made them feel not so alone.
So God bless each of you. In a world of uncertainty and simply selfish mean-spirited people, you reminded them and I know my family that wonderful kind people do still exist.
Much love from the family of Spc Cameryn W. , 229th MP Co

Good Afternoon from Poland Judy,

Miss Judy,

I sincerely thank you for coordinating the timely delivery of all of the stockings to my field hospital unit! They were filled with such thoughtful items to nourish our mind, soul and stomachs (we are huge fans of books, sweets and cards!) Your generous support truly helped to lift our spirits, especially as many of our soldiers are navigating their first holiday season away from family and in a deployed environment. As we near the end of our deployment and reflect on what got us through some challenging times, the support of organizations such as yours comes first to mind. It reminds us of the big picture of our work and support from those who may not know us personally is truly touching and motivating. Wishing you and your family a happy, healthy (and hopefully relaxing) holiday season + New Year! -Respectfully, Gina

Dear Stockings For Soldiers – Delaware, Inc.,

Thank you so much for the beautiful handmade Christmas stockings. We were especially touched that the stockings had our names on it, it made the gift feel incredibly personal and meaningful. Receiving our favorite chocolate along with a book that we are truly excited to begin reading brought us so much joy.

Your thoughtfulness, time and care did not go unnoticed. Moments like these are a powerful reminder that we are supported and appreciated, even while serving away from home. Your generosity truly made this Christmas special.

Thank you for all that you do to support Service members. We are sincerely grateful.

With heartfelt appreciation.

On behalf of our unit, thank you for the incredible Christmas stockings. Being deployed away from home for almost a year has been challenging, but your generosity brought real cheer to all of us.

We handed out the stockings and they were proudly displayed in our office and living spaces. Your kindness reminded us, "we're not forgotten" and truly grateful for your support. Sgt. Nichols

I got this delivered to me today and wanted to thank yall for making such a thoughtful gift for me and my fellow soldiers. Thank you for taking the time to think of us and getting this together. Even the smallest things help to get us through. Keep up the good work.

Good morning Ms. Travis,

I wanted to take a moment to thank you for your kind care package you sent to my unit. This past year has not been easy, and this Christmas was the first one for many of us without our families. Service is not always easy, but knowing that someone back home was thinking of us really meant a lot to my troops and myself.

Take care and thank you again for your kindness.

As always, thank you for including us in your amazing project. Unfortunately, I was unable to join you as many times as I would have liked ... but the few times I did make it - it was magical.
So many new friends this year and so much hard work goes into this program we are just happy to be along for the ride.
Looking forward to next year already, Lisa

Dear Chief Elf-in-Charge ,

Just wanted to reach out with a warm thanks from all the soldiers in my section; your gifts and holiday wishes were a huge morale boost to everyone! Thank you for letting everyone know that they are being thought about this holiday season; especially those who may not be able to spend time with loved ones. I just wanted to reach out and ensure that you know your actions are very much appreciated by everyone and do not go unnoticed. Thank you again and have a wonderful holiday season!

Ms. Judy Travis,

On behalf of the 142d Military Police Brigade, thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the handmade Christmas stockings and thoughtful snacks. The personal touch and attention to detail in each stocking made them truly special. Your kindness reminded our deployed service members that we are not alone, and it helped ease the homesickness during the holidays. Knowing that friends and neighbors like you are thinking about us means more than words can express. God Bless!

Our main Mission is to make sure our troops know that they have not been forgotten by the American people.

Thank You, again, to all the Members of the Military who have volunteered to Serve our great Country and we Thank their families.
